AQHA TRAIL RIDE TO BE HELD THIS WEEKEND

ARE YOU TOUGH ENOUGH TO WEAR PINK? This is the question we are asking riders participating in the annual charity trail ride sponsored by the Iowa Quarter Horse Association, an affiliate of the American Quarter Horse Association. This event is part of AQHA's RIDE Program which is an international series of trail rides that celebrates the joys of horseback riding while supporting many areas of the equine industry and other charities. Proceeds from this year's event will benefit the AQHA Foundation and Susan G. Komen Foundation for breast cancer research and awareness.

Horses of any breed and riders of all disciplines are welcome to participate. This year's ride is to be held at the beautiful River Valley Lodge & Campground near Farmington, Iowa. River Valley Lodge is a state of the art family oriented facility with a definite western atmosphere. Activities include a wine & cheese reception, ranch horse show, smoked Iowa chop dinner and dance to Wild Wild West Band. Door prizes will be offered throughout the weekend.

Participants should have pre-registered by August 10. For more information please contact Lori Mennenga, IQHA Recreational Riding Advisor at lorikmennenga@hotmail.com or by phoning 641-358-6166.

Registration Forms for the 2009 AQHA Trail Ride Flier are online. View the Registration Form by clicking this link: Form.

IQHA TRAIL RIDE GAINS NATIONAL RECOGNITION AS IT RAISES MONEY FOR HARMONY RANCH THERAPEUTIC RIDING

The Iowa Quarter Horse Association donated $500 to the Harmony Ranch Therapeutic Riding. This money was raised through benefit trail rides, which were presented by IQHA as an affiliate of AQHA's Ride Program.

AQHA's RIDE program is an international series of trail rides that celebrate the joys of horseback riding while supporting many aspects of the equine industry as well as other charitable organizations. Last year's rides were at Brushy Creek State Recreation Area near Fort Dodge, Iowa, and at Volga River State Park near Fayette, Iowa.

This year's ride is scheduled for August 20 at Garst Farms Resort near Coon Rapids, Iowa.

Harmony Ranch Therapeutic Riding is a non-profit organization based in Clear Lake, Iowa. Their mission is to use animals and the beauty of nature to facilitate Christian ministry by providing therapeutic, educational and recreational opportunities. Doctors, therapist, riding instructors, and families have become aware of the positive physical and mental benefits of horseback riding for individuals physically and/or mentally challenged.

For more information on Harmony Ranch Therapeutic Riding, contact Linda Rodemeyer at (641) 822-4681 or Meg Hughes at (641) 860-1605. For more information on the IQHA benefit trail rides, call Lori Mennenga at (641) 358-6166.
