Article V Selection of teams representing Iowa Quarter Horse Youth Association

Section 1. AQHYA World Championship Show Team. Ft. Worth, TX.

- (a) Points will count for the Iowa Quarter Horse Association approved shows only. For 2005 and beyond, the qualifying period will begin June 16 of the year and run until June 15 of the following year for that year's qualifying – i.e. 2007 World Show Qualifying Period will be June 16, 2006 through June 15, 2007.
- (b) All regular AQHA approved youth classes will be considered qualifying classes. When the classes are split by age, each class will be used to determine points for that event (ie western pleasure 13 & under and 14-18).
- (c) The youth earning the highest number of points in a given class in his or her best six (6) shows will be the first team member selected. The youth with the second highest number of points from his or her best six (6) shows will be the second team member selected. An alternate will be chosen by the third highest number of points in his or her best six (6) shows. If that person chooses not to be on the team, the next highest point earner will be asked to be an alternate. Upon notification by the Youth Advisor of team eligibility, the exhibitor shall have 2 days to accept or decline so that others may be contacted in a timely fashion.
- (d) Nationally Qualified Youth: Youth wishing to participate with the IQHYA World Show Team must file a World Show Nomination letter of intent by May 1. AQHYA National Qualifying Period is May 1 – April 30. Nationally qualified team members must meet member participation requirements to earn the World Show Team recognition award.
- (e) If anyone has interest in participation in performance classes offered at the Youth World and less than six of these classes have been offered in Iowa prior to the qualifying deadline, the Youth Advisor must be notified by Letter of Intent, available from Youth Advisor, by June 15. For these classes, points earned from January 1 through June 15 will have priority. The balance of the team in these classes will be chosen by priority given to the past show record of horse. If you are interested in coming a halter class team member in horse age groups other than the first, second, and alternate team qualifiers, you may exhibit during the Iowa Show Circuit. Total points earned under the IQHYA point system during the Iowa Show Circuit that are Iowa approved, plus any points earned from January 1 will determine the first, second and alternate team members. In the event of a tie, the total points (Iowa & national) earned from January 1 to the end of the qualifying shows will be taken. This is for performance and halter classes. The Youth Advisor must be notified of your interest in being a halter class team member prior to the qualifying deadline.
- (f) Any youth interested in showing at the Youth World Show must sign a Letter of Intent. Letters of Intent need to be signed for all classes offered at the Youth World Show. Exhibitors do not need to sign Letters of Intent to show in any or all youth classes. Only those who wish to show at the Youth World Show or Congress NYATT teams. Letter of intent to be filed by May 1 with youth advisor.
- (g) AQHYA Hardship Requests: AQHYA Hardship requests will be accepted as long as the youth meets the same World Show Team Member Participation Requirements as the Iowa Team Members.
- (h) World Show Team Member Participation Requirements: IQHYA Membership and Sponsorship Amounts must be paid prior to earning qualifying points. World Show nomination letter of intent must have been made prior to earning qualifying points. World Show Team Members must attend one (1) IQHYA Meeting and participate in one (1) IQHYA Fundraiser during the qualifying period.

Section 2. IQHYA Team Rules

(a) When teams are chosen, and those on the team have signified they are going, both the youth and parent shall sign the official AQHYA entry card, and have written approval from parent or guardian who will be responsible for the conduct and care of the youth. Should a team member arrive at an unforeseen emergency, that team member shall submit their reason to the IQHYA Youth Advisor(s). Should the reason be found valid, the alternate would be notified immediately. Non-valid reasons are subject to the penalties below.

(b) Should a team member who has signed the paper stating that he or she is going to show with the team, not show up without informing IQHYA Youth Advisor(s), he or she shall forfeit next year's team privileges and points from his or her four previous shows will not count for year end awards and no year end award will be awarded to him or her in the classes he or she was nominated for.

(c) Participants of teams pay all their own expenses. IQHYA will pay the entry fee. IQHYA will give each team member of the Ft. Worth team an amount which was determined at the annual meeting and appropriate recognition not exceeding an amount determined at the annual meeting. You must be a member of AQHYA by May 31 of the current year to participate at the AQHYA World Championship Show.

Section 3. National Youth Activity Team Tournament at the All American Quarter Horse Congress

(a) IQHYA will fund two (2) NYATT teams – the IQHA Team and the IQHRA Team (provided the IQHRA will sponsor a team).
