AQHVA FORD TRUCK RAFFLE TICKETS

Contact Youth Advisor, Jennifer Horton, to get your tickets to sell. Anyone wishing to qualify for the 2007 AQHA Youth World Show or the Congress teams must sell at least 20 tickets. Half of the money stays with IQHYA and half goes directly to AQHA youth scholarships. The affiliate selling the most tickets will receive a $1,000 bonus from AQHA! It is YOUR responsibility to get your tickets, sell them and return stubs and money to Jennifer before the June 25 deadline.

AQHIA WORLD SHOW QUALIFYING

The national qualifying period ends April 30, 2007 for the 2007 Youth World Show. Our IQHYA state qualifying period runs June 16, 2006 through June 15, 2007. Remember, to be eligible to state qualify, you must have paid your IQHYA membership plus the $50 sponsorship fee and sell a minimum of 20 Ford Truck raffle tickets and you must still file a letter of intent. At our annual membership meeting, we eliminated the IQHYA qualifying classes for showmanship, western pleasure and horsemanship so we will be using the regular youth classes to determine points for these classes just like the other classes. If you have any questions about qualifying please see Jennifer Horton.

Youth Scholarship Show

The April Spring Fling Show is designated by Equine Marketing Group as a Youth Scholarship Show. Youth are requested to help work various jobs as part of show management as they are able and the wages will be paid as a donation to the IQHA Dollars For Scholars program. In 2002 this show donated $600 to the scholarship program so we need IQHYA Members to pitch in and help the cause. Contact Youth Advisor, Jennifer Horton, if you can help at this show - April 4-6 in Cedar Rapids. You can work around your show schedule!

April Iowa Spring Fling Show in Cedar Rapids

This is our Youth Scholarship Show. Equine Marketing Group will be employing IQHYA members to help work in show management during this show. The "wages" for the workers will be paid directly to the IQHA Dollars For Scholars Youth Scholarship Program. This is a great chance for IQHYA members to participate in a fundraising activity (earn points for your scholarship) and get a taste of running a horse show.
